SOUTHWESTERN AND PROUD...

Xavier High School
4710 North Fifth Street
Phoenix, Arizona

It's been called "The Great American Desert", "The Great American Wasteland", and "Sunbelt" and the "last Vestige of the Old West"; but to those of us who live here it's home, Arizona, the Southwest and we're proud to be here.

We are the only Catholic girls' high school in the Southwest. Some see it as blue plaid skirts, Izods and deck shoes; but to those of us who are Xavier it is more. We are more recent 'pioneers' of the old and the new Southwest, some native Arizonans, some a striking combination, but all Southwest, all Xavier, and all PROUD.

Like Xavier,
The influences of the pioneer,
the settler, the entrepreneur,
and the artist have blended together to make the Southwest unique.

In 1943 the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary arrived in Arizona to minister to the educational needs of the Southwest. 40 years later, November 1, 1983, the Xavier High School Community celebrated the B.V.M.'s 150 years as a Religious Congregation.

Jubilee Day consisted of tributes and remembrances from former students, present students, faculty, Diocesan and city officials. Guests and students were treated to an Assembly, breakfast and Liturgy all honoring our . . .

Accepting the symbolic light of the founders, Sister Cecily and Sister Agnes promise a future of faithfulness and steadfast love.

A joyful symbol of the thankfulness, love

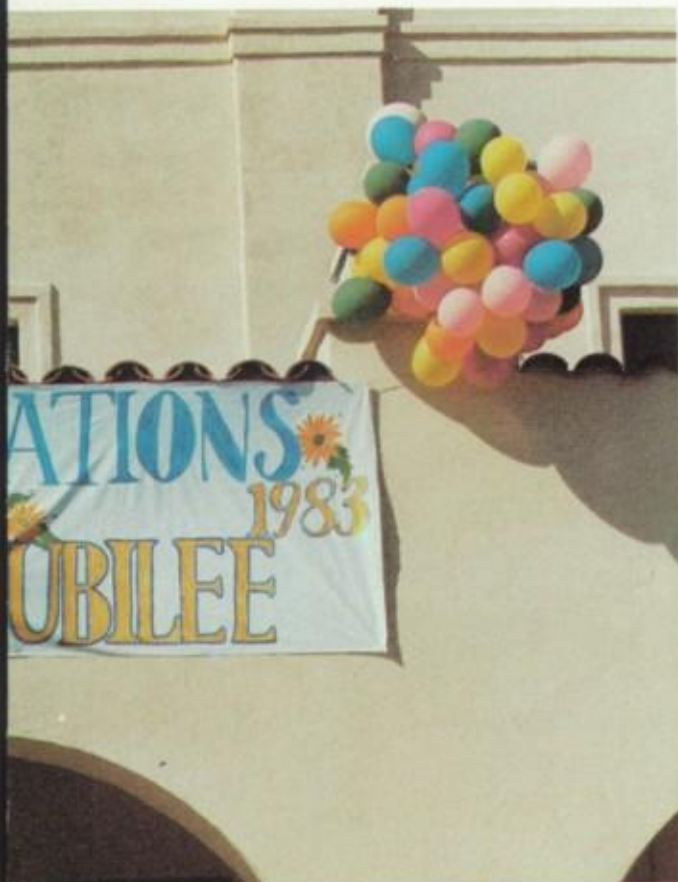

A slight 'repast' for the present and future they have given us; Sisters Cyril, Carol, Ann and Irene enjoy lunch.

We are called to live in any part of the world where there is promise of furthering the mission of Jesus through works of education, justice and peace.

and best wishes of the students and faculty.

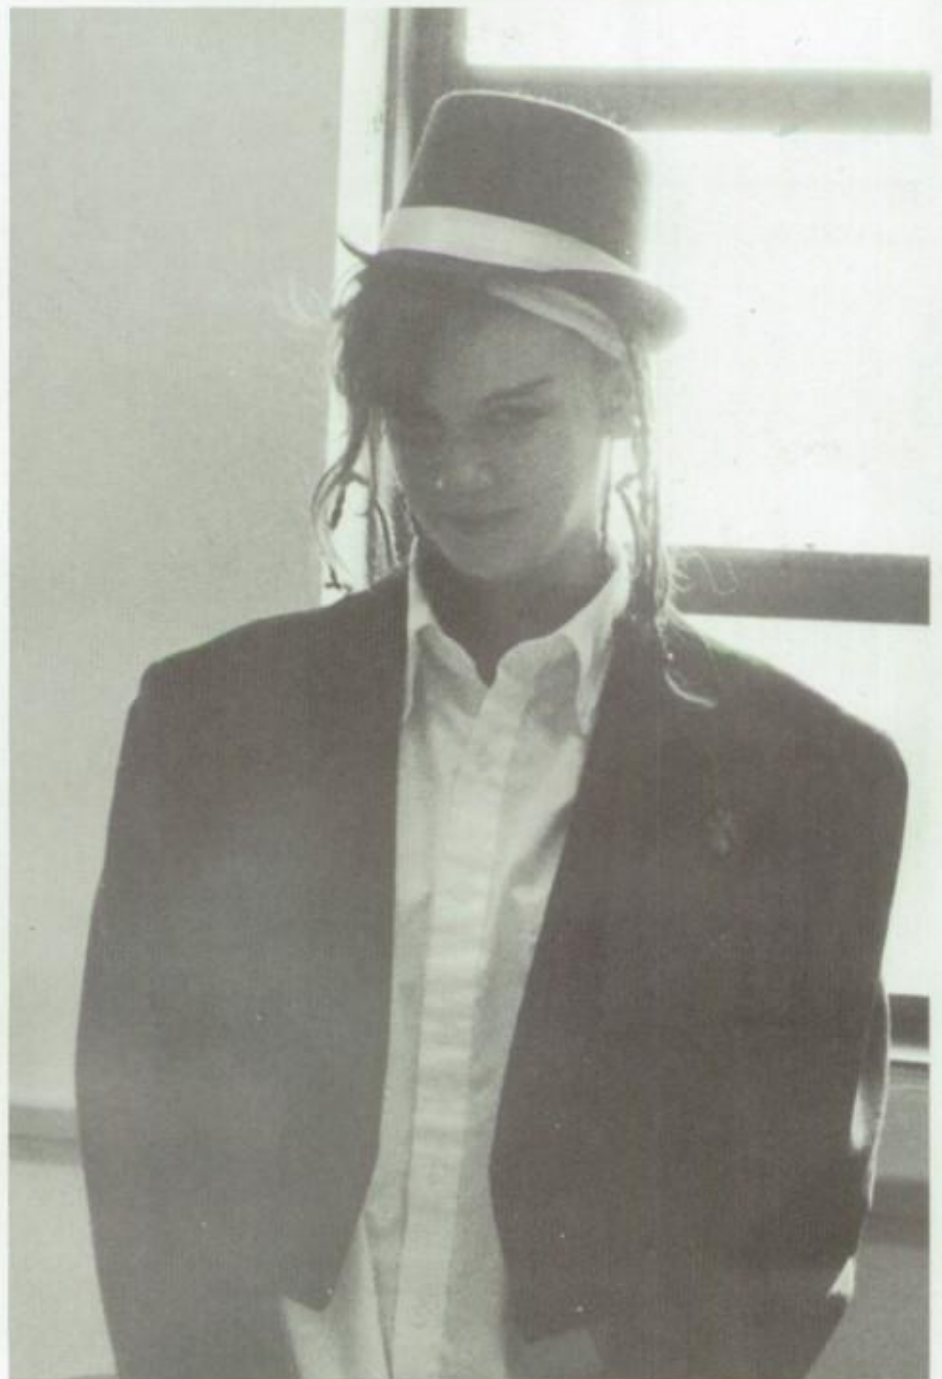

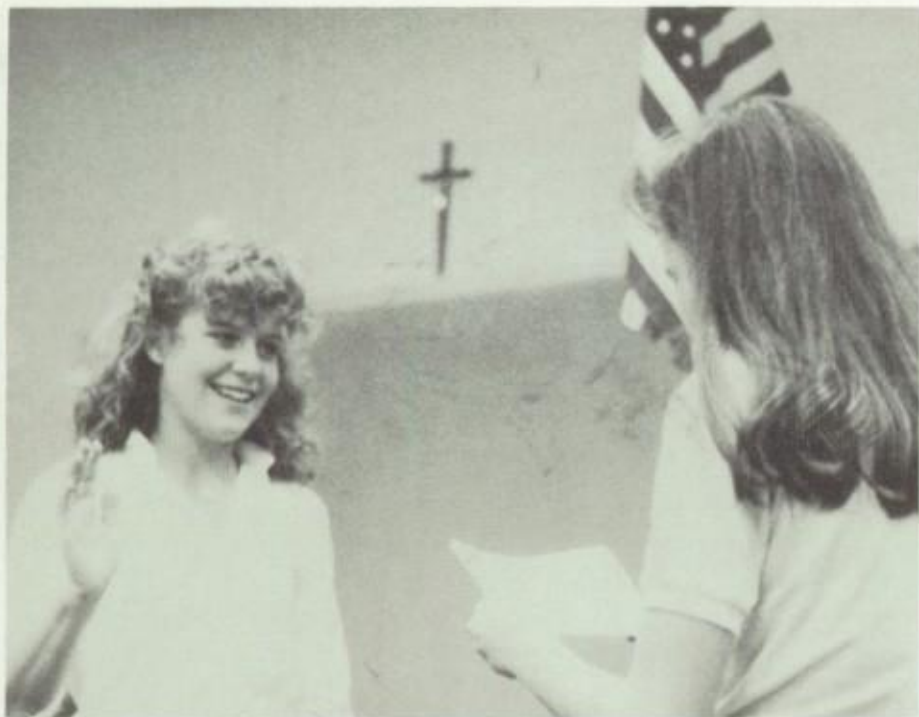

Through the medium of Sacred Dance, Xavier students celebrate the lasting song of the B.V.M.'s.

COSTUME DAY

Is this how Xavier takes advantage of 'out-of uniform' days??? Many students took part in the privilege of dressing up for Halloween. The campus was crawling with everything from witches and 'snow-birds', to laundry baskets and M & M's. The costumes were creative and original, and expressed the spirit of the holiday.

Clockwise: "Is this what you call a Brophy stud, Steph?? "Well, Hello Dolly . . ." Annette Funicello?? Is it Monica — or is it Boy George?

It's been a short summer and we are back in the plaid. Excitement and high hopes rekindled the first day of school. Starting off the year, the Frosh Mixer introduced our youngest members to Xavier and its spirit. Then the Football season began and the parties and dances commenced.

Not all is fun and games though, as assignments mounted, tests were distributed and Frosh class offices decided. At play or at work, our spirit, the Xavier spirit prevailed.

Left Bottom: Lectures, notes and even homework are a strong reminder that we're different because we are Xavier.

PIRATES

This year's Xavier/Brophy Homecoming was a swashbuckling success. Boys and girls alike came ashore dressed creatively as "Pirates of the Caribbean" as was the theme of the October 4, 1983 Homecoming celebrations.

The Brophy Broncos bravely played on against the Cortez Colts and ended the Battle with a score of 0 canonballs to 0 canonballs.

Everyone had a great time dancing, but the highlight of the evening was the announcement of this year's king and queen. All the candidates lined up nervously on the plank waiting to see who would sink and who would swim. The candidates for pirate queen were Liz Foster, Kristi Hornaday, Julie Kohnen, Irene Reidy and Regan Steward, Pirate King Candidates were Dave Dodenhoff, Dave Grounds, Miles McBride, Dan Simmons and Dunham Stewart. Finally, after the candidates had suffered enough sword like piercing nervousness, last year's King and Queen, Julie Lee and Geoff Zwemke announced Liz Foster and Dan Simmons as the 1983 King and Queen.

Special thanks to Liz Copeland who acted as the Xavier Chairperson.

GO WEST!!

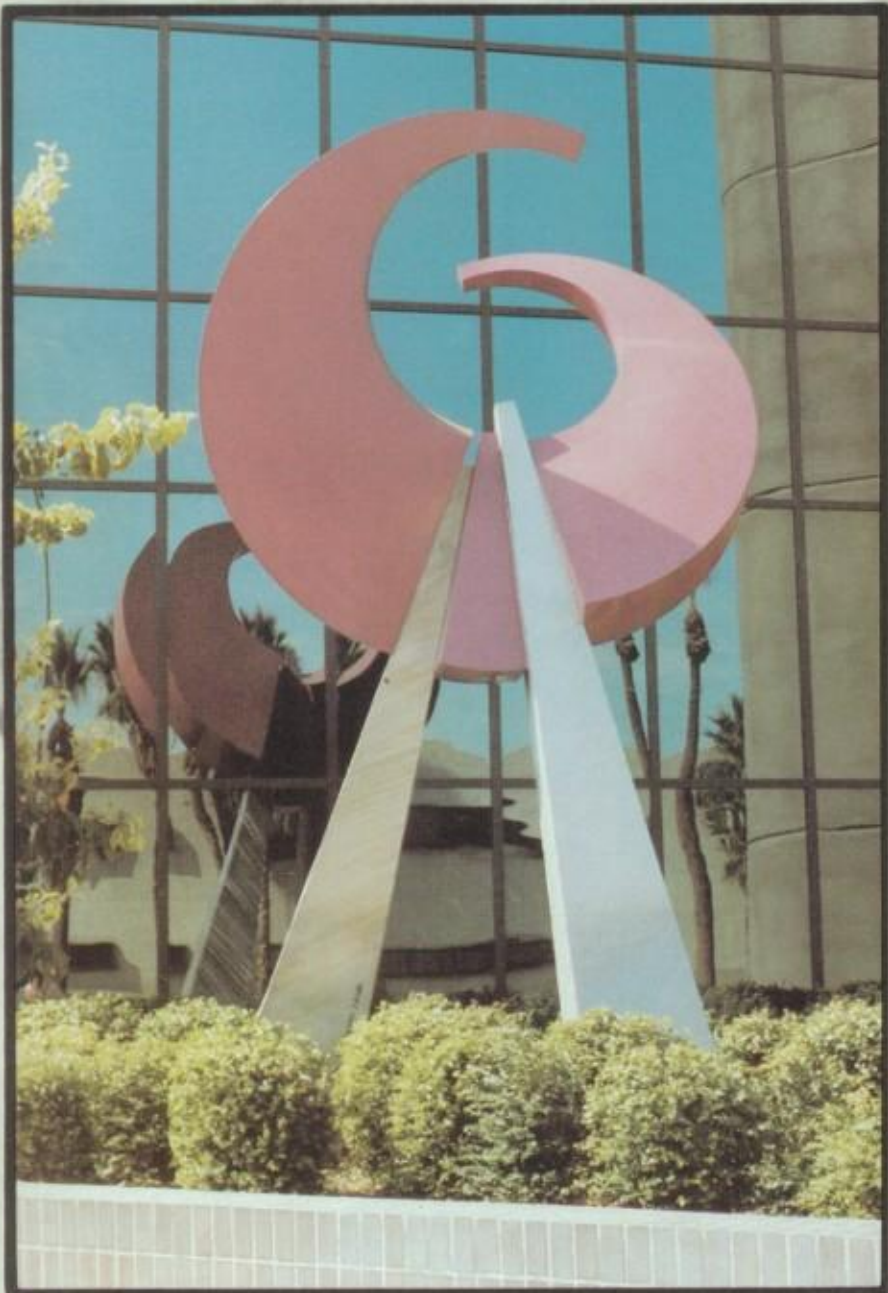

ARE WE HAVING FUN?

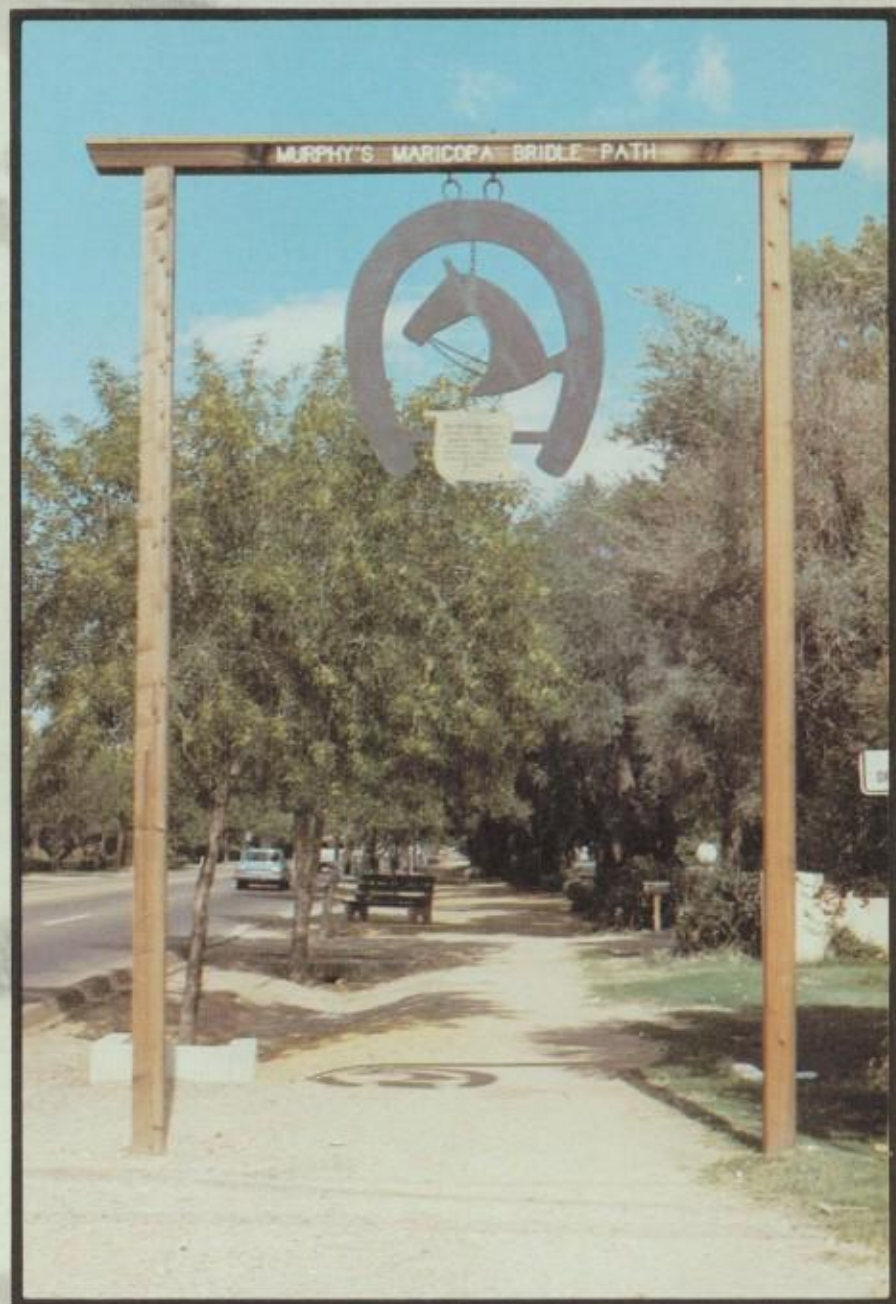

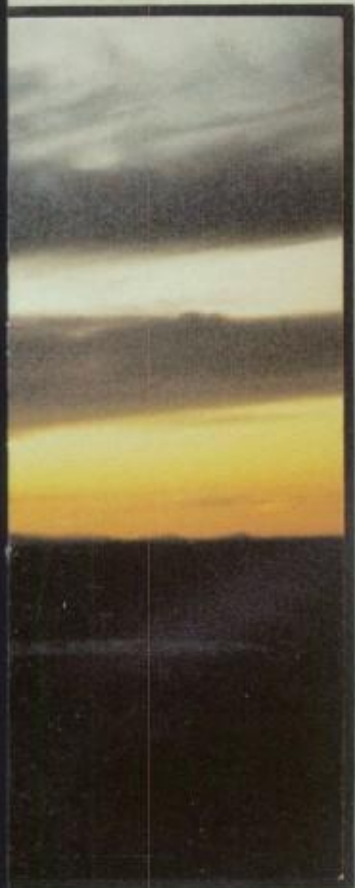

The Xavier girls have fun both during the school day and after the sun goes down, at games, dances, and other activities. The most important aspect of Xavier fun is our ability to laugh at the unexpected. Although the homework load may sometimes be heavy, Xavier students still find time to have fun with their friends. Some of our 'outside' activities include: tubing down the Salt, attending concerts, dancing . . . A visit to the Xavier Campus will find the students involved in: initiating the Freshmen, dressing up for Homecoming and Halloween, decorating lockers, running down the hallway, giving and receiving flowers, balloons and birthday grams and discussing plans for the weekend. "Are we at Xavier to learn or to have four great years?" The answer: "Both!"

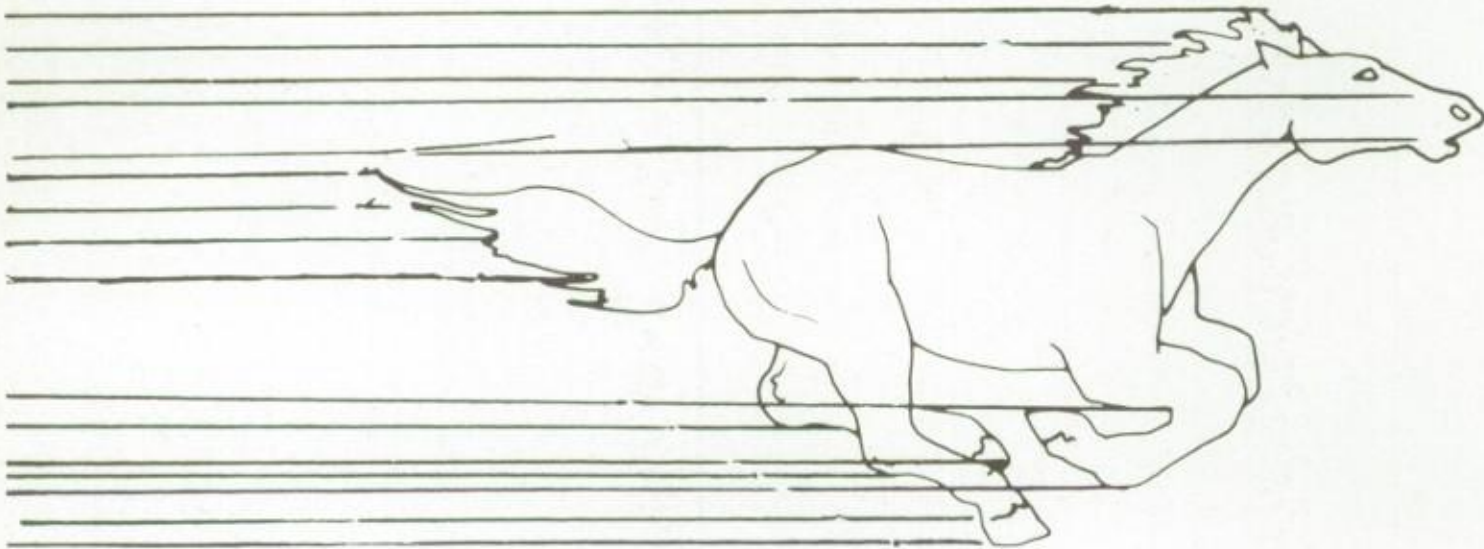

Counter Clockwise from Top: The President and her Cabinet. — Don't you know your own strength, Julie?? — It's a dog-eat-dog world out there, FRESHMEN!!! — What can I say? I'm a pirate of the 80's. — Seniors Mary and Elissa invade Freshman Turf!

RALLIES

Rallies are an important part of Xavier's school spirit. Several times this year we united with Brophy in expressing our pride in the Broncos and cheering them on to victories. The rallies this year were well attended so the parking lots and stands were packed with Bronco fans. All Xavier girls wonder deep down in their hearts. "What would their rallies be like without us?" Well, they certainly wouldn't be complete.

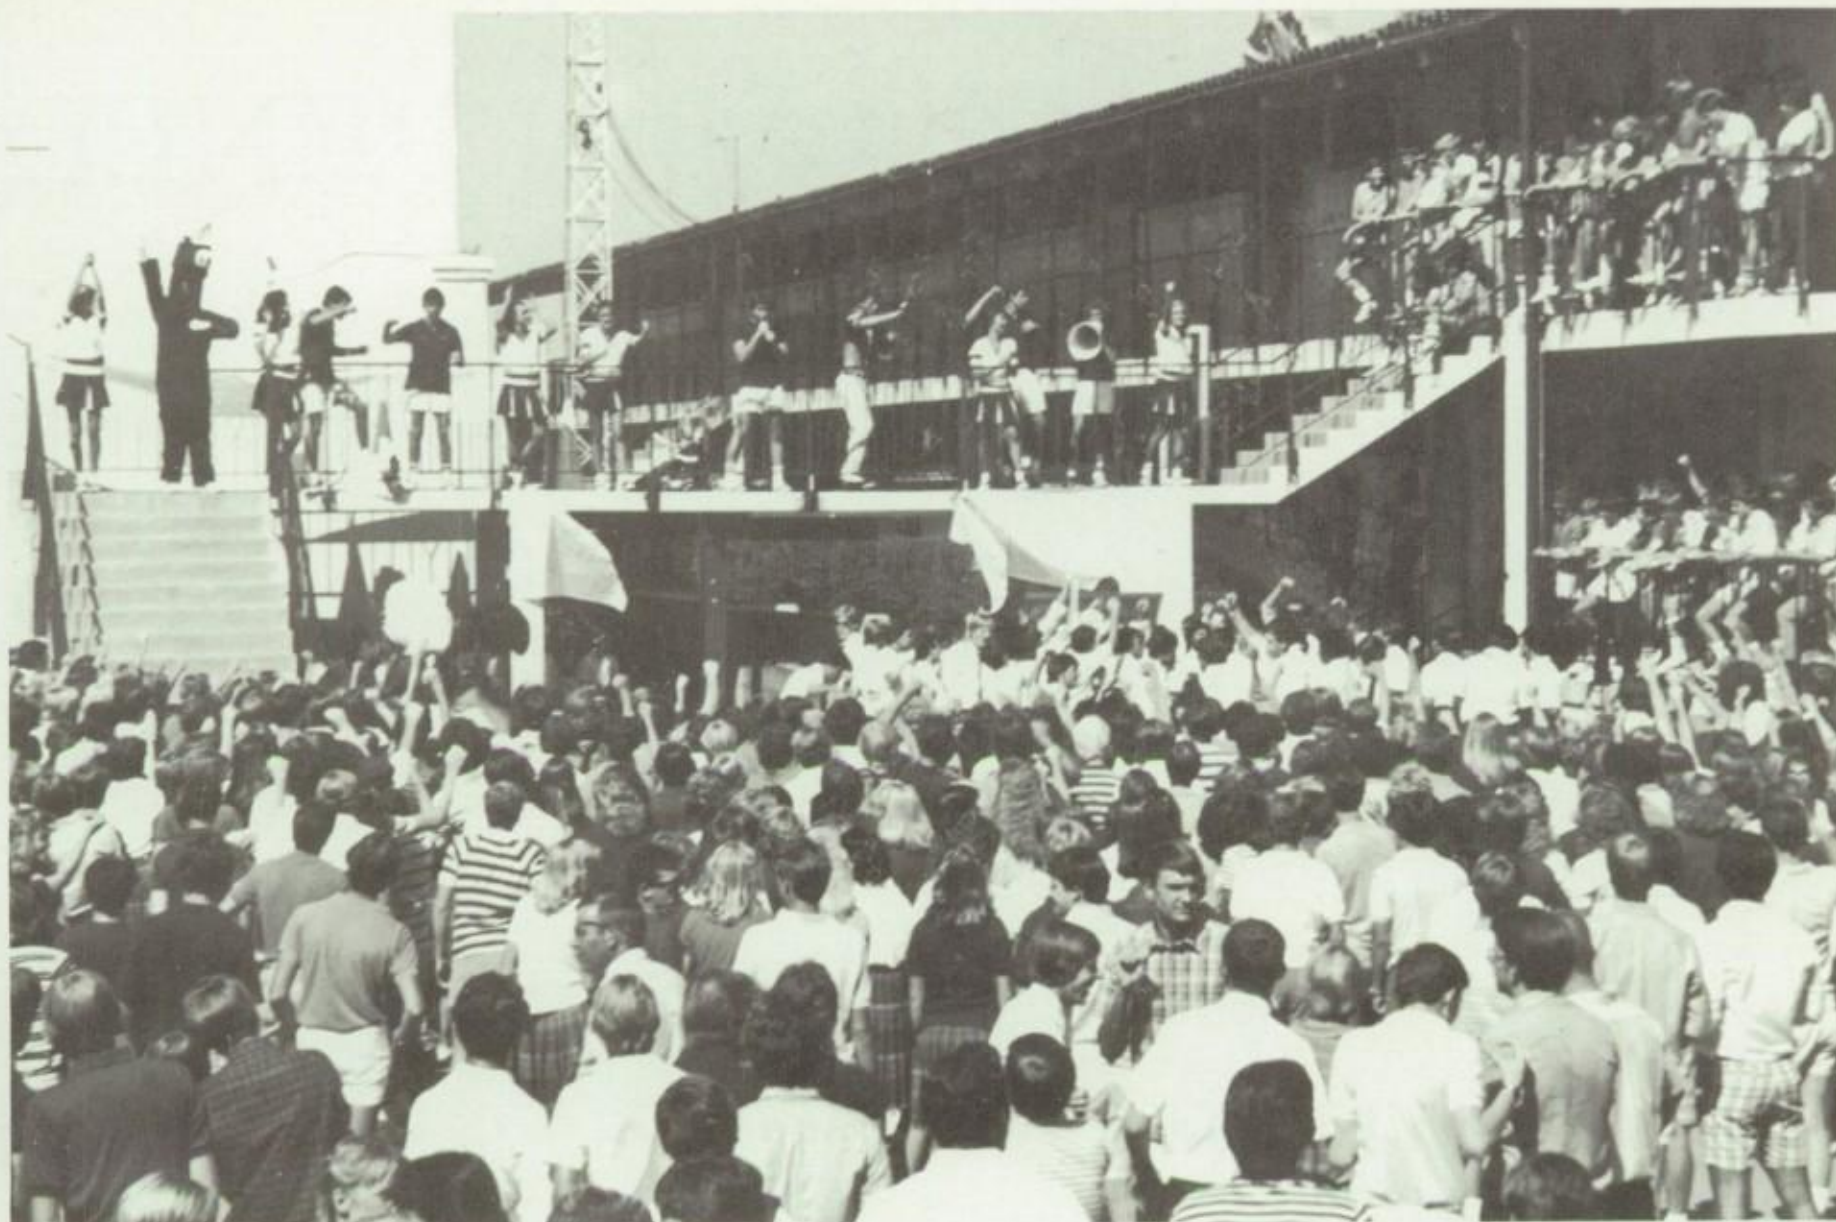

Hey, it's only a guy! You don't have to fall apart!! Jolie Green thinks the broncos are numero uno.

Stephanie knows how to get the crowd cheering!

Xavier girls come from miles around to catch a glimpse of the one and only BROPHY BRONCO!!!

The Xavier and Brophy cheerleaders will do ANYTHING (Well, maybe not anything) to get the crowds to cheer! This looks like one rowdy bunch!!

Go Bronc's!!!

Not rain, nor sleet, nor tracheotomy will hold the bronco back.

PLAYS “A FUNNY THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO THE FORUM.”

The 1983 fall play “Forum” was great; many Xavier and Brophy students had a chance to fully express their acting abilities. Bridget Garvin and Johanna Carlisle of Xavier took the female leads.

Jeff Rago and his comrades sing out.

It's Bridget's turn.

Jennifer and Liz win their leader over.

“THE KING AND I”

The spring play of 1984 was also a great success for the Brophy-Xavier Theatre and its director Mr. Horsfall of Brophy. Nancy McDonald, Katie Orman, and Kristin Nicastro had female leads. Jeff Rago, Jeff Whitcher, and Tomas Teskey had male leads.

WINTER

WONDERLAND

The 1983 Christmas Dance was a huge success. The freshmen did a great job of turning the Xavier gym into a Winter Wonderland. Brophy and Xavier students gathered to dance to the music of Listen. Brophy held a raffle and sophomore Terri Ohr won limousine service for the night. The Christmas Dance was a breakthrough because it brought a little snow to the Valley, if only for one night.

VALENTINE'S people... DANCE

Xavier celebrates the famous day for lovers in a new way. This year we did something different for this special day. Rather than have our usual "night dance" we had a mixer after school. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves, dancing to the music of the B-52's, and eating pizza.

Sophomores show us what they've got!!!!

Sorry, I'm busy Friday night! . . .

XAVIERITES ATTACK THE BIG WORLD?

Xavierite influence extends farther than just the borders of Arizona. Xavier combines heritage, religion, and customs from every walk of life and turns out a school combined with energetic Southwestern Pride. It is through the pride of our many diversified cultures that we can gain a pride in ourselves and our school.

Xavier sponsored activities include CLOSE-UP and the European trip. CLOSE-UP is a week long program in which students participate in and get a close-up view of our nation's Government. The Close-Up program provides a student with an inside look at an appreciation of our government along with a chance to meet other students from other states. The European trip allows the girls to experience different cultures and broaden their own culture and personality.

FATHER-DAUGHTER DANCE

The theme of the 1984 Sophomore Father-Daughter Dance was: "Hugs and Kisses For Daddy." Daddy's and Daughters alike enjoyed dancing to the music of the Bunny Hop, Jitter bug, the Tango, and many more "fashionable" dances. Fathers and daughters thoroughly enjoyed the time they spent with each other!!

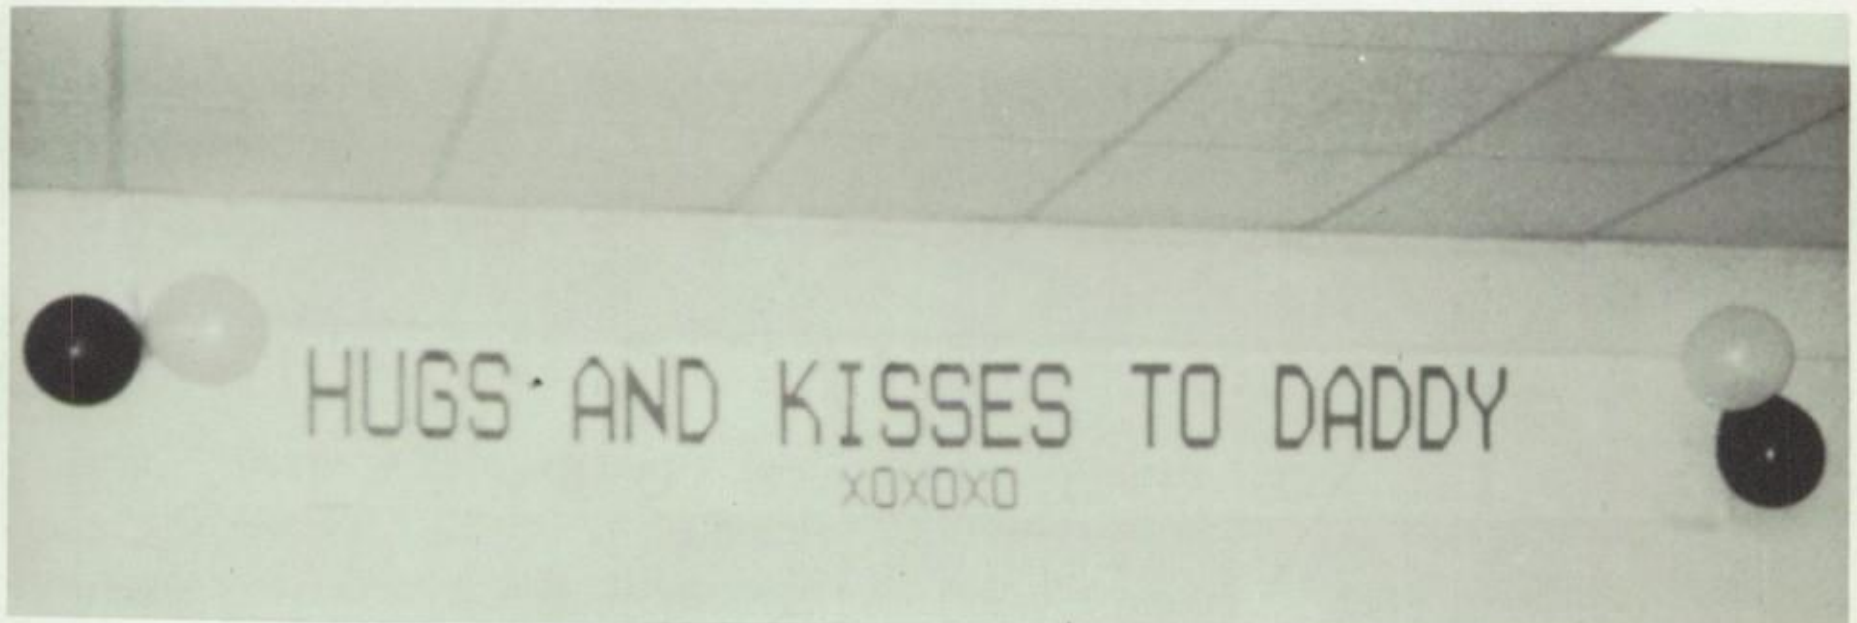

Daddy, daughter . . . daddy, daughter . . . daddy, daughter

Hugs . . . Hugs . . . Hugs . . .

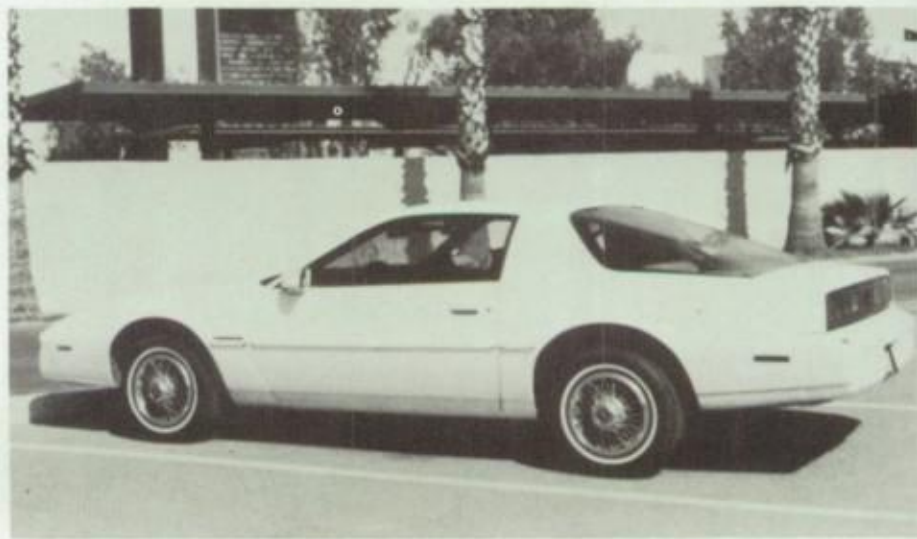

I love you daddy even if you don't know how to dance!!!

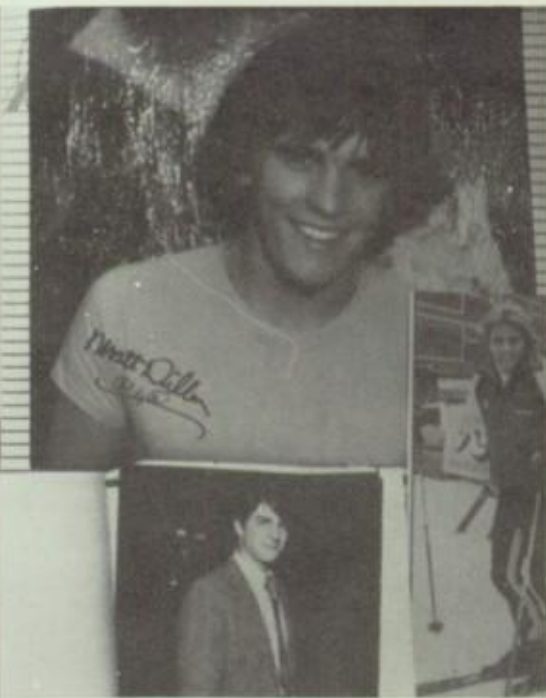

This says it all!!!!

Trends have been with us since the beginning of time, and have greatly influenced our lifestyles. Fashion is not the only category w/trends, there are trends in: shoes, hairstyles, automobiles, rockgroups, movies, and movie-stars — even trends in school activities. Xavier and its students exhibit a wide range of trends in many categories. This year styles in hair ranged from classic blunts to mod-punk and geometric cuts; styles in clothes ranged from preppy to casual to vogue to mod-rock. An overwhelming trend in fashion this year stemmed from the movie "Flashdance" which depicted torn ragged sweatshirts. Another wave of fashion was the "Plastic" scene . . . plastic shoes, plastic purses, plastic necklaces . . . In the music category, the biggest name to hit the charts and awards was none other than "Michael Jackson" — who was not only famed for his music but his style of dancing & dress. Michael not only set a record for awards and nominations at the Music Awards, but also at the Grammy Awards. Following closely was Duran Duran the Australian group w/good sound and good looks, Boy George with a style all of his own, David Bowie. Popular movies were "Flashdance", "All the Right Moves" starring Tom Cruise, "Risky Business" starring Tom Cruise, "Outsiders" starring Matt Dillion, Tom Cruise, & Rob Lowe.

On the Xavier campus scene our trends dealt w/the unique way of celebrating birthdays or special occasions by decorating lockers, sending birthday-grams, or balloons. Another locker trend are the posters, pin-ups, stickers, and calendar men. Xavier is also unique in that our biggest trend is our plaid Xavier skirts!! Shoes range from nikes to k-swiss to boaters to loafers to pumps to espadrilles to, and yes, cowboys haven't died yet-boots. We're Southwestern and proud of our many styles and trends!

Xavier mothers handcrafted with precision all items sold in the boutique. A lot of hard work, time, effort, and dedication was put forth to create a Winter Wonderland.

The Country Kitchen is composed of all kinds of baked goods such as pies, cookies, breads candies

CAMPUS

MINISTRY

Father Neil leads the liturgy.

Carrying in the flags at the BVM jubilee are Beth Hancock, Mandy Morris, and Katie Zahn.

Campus ministry at Xavier centers around monthly liturgies led by Father Neil Draves-Arpaia. Many students participate actively in these liturgies as singers, liturgical dancers, and altar servers. This year there were a number of students and faculty that were special ministers of the Eucharist. These students were: Susan Cannata, Martha Fay, Mary Fitzpatrick, Jennifer Harlan, Monica Ramirez, Barrie Schamadan, Danielle Tanner, and Michelle Wauro.

Kim Copple receives the Eucharist from Barrie.

Student and faculty show their support for the school liturgy.

PEOPLE HELPING PEOPLE

As if homework and school aren't enough! Besides school work and all of its responsibilities, many girls at Xavier take on jobs outside the classroom. These jobs vary greatly, as you can see from the following pictures. They range from scooping ice-cream to serving popcorn to bagging groceries to whatever you could imagine. Throughout the year we hear announcements about job openings. Many are babysitting jobs, and a lot of girls take on seasonal jobs during the busy Christmas shopping rush.

THE SADNESS IN THE CONCERTOS OF MAN

*It, sits under the light and its exterior shines
It's keys-black and white — soon to be played with in time
The composer awaits in the dark backstage
The anxious crowd sits on their seats in a rage
Because the concert is late and the piano awaits on the stage*

*Suddenly backstage a loud scream is heard
Not one person mutters a single word
Out walks the composer with a knife in his back
He blurts out a word which sounds like "attack"
Then falls to the floor right next to the King
The piano's keys begin to ring*

*It plays not more than a single page
Of the dead composer's prize-winning garbage
But switches to a tune which is much more grave
The women and men begin to rave
The people run to get away
But the doors are locked — or so they say — and the piano continues to play*

*Suddenly the lights go out
The ladies scream; the men all shout
The panic in the hall does rise*

*There is terror in all the people's eyes
And heard are the piano's sighs*

*The piano then begins to move
It runs along a single groove
On which its boundaries had been placed
Now it knows it has been faced
With a situation it must overcome
In order to get its evil job done*

*Its body structure heaves, and sighs
From the hall come people's cries
The floor has now begun to split
The piano moves out of the pit
In which it had before been placed
And all emotions are erased*

*The people walk around dumbstruck
Madness and insanity have struck
The people in the concert hall
From the rear the piano calls
Fright begins to overtake
Each person and each tries to take
The life of another human being
The hall is filled with piercing screams*

*Suddenly only silence is heard
There's no one left to mutter a word
The piano begins to play a tune
Which seems to fill the entire room
Everything is quiet; the room is still
What has caused these people to kill?
It must have been that menacing song
Which the piano had been playing all along*

*The piano's lid at the moment does slam
As it plays the last notes to "Mary Had a Little Lamb"*

Algebra Thoughts

*School is a bore, school is a chore.
Sometimes I feel I can't take anymore,
But it's not half as hard with my family supporting;
I somehow pull through, and my work proves rewarding.
I try my hardest, for in life I want to succeed,
Why, I can't be successful if I can't write or read!
I know in the end I will not regret
For my foundation will be sound, I'll have no reason to fret.
Yes, school is a bore, school is a chore,
But I know for me God has good things in store.*

Margaret Giedraitis

GOOD FRIDAY

*There once were two girls
Who sat down to lunch.
They eyed those around them;
Their food gave a crunch.*

*The gossip then started
As their tongues gave a hiss.
Others joined in.
It went something like this:*

*"See that girl over there?
She talks with a lisp."
"Not only that but She's never been kissed!"*

*"By the looks of his clothes,
He's poorer than mice.
I wouldn't give him the time,
Not once and not twice."*

*I've heard of that girl,
She flirts with the guys.
And she thinks she's so pretty,
But I hate her blue eyes!"*

*"Then there's that bum
Who's stupid and senile.
He's got no money,
And he's got no style."*

*Oh, the hate of the group
Hissed like a snake
As they ripped, and they tore
At their fellow classmates.*

*But they heard not the scream
That roared out with pain.
"You killed me once," Christ said
"Don't do it again!"*

BASKE CHEER

The Xavier Spring Cheerline, Like the Fall Cheer line, supports the Brophy Broncos. Instead of supporting the football team though, they enhance spirit at the Bronco Basketball games. Varsity members this year are: Captain Amy Leonard, Kristi Benson, Lisa Hill, and Maria Maldonado.

The Basketball "Pommies" enhance the spirit of the crowds at all of the Brophy Broncos Basketball games. During the halftime they perform excellent Three minute dances to keep the audience's attention.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The 1983-84 Executive Board was President — Kristi Hornaday, Vice-President — Jackie Monthofer, Secretary — Brigid McDonnell, Treasurer — Rossie Tobin, Activities chairperson — Heidi Jacobson, Publicity Chairperson Erin Naughton, and Public Relations Chairperson — Pattie Bratcher.

This year's executive board was unique in that it met with Brophy's executive board every two weeks to plan activities to promote more unity between Brophy and Xavier. Some activities and accomplishments of the executive board were the sweatshirts for the upper classmen, a Brophy-Xavier Halloween dance, the Frosh mixer, and the Christmas food drive.

YEARBOOK

1. These girls have just entered into the Twilight Zone.

This year's Yearbook Staff has been extremely busy trying to meet the ever-present deadlines. Pictures, copy, ads, clubs, dances and everyday life turned into an endless challenge. This year's Co-Editors are Sandi Jorgensen and Jennifer Harlan. Photography Editor is Elena Baca. Staff members include Srs. Lisa Rivera and Tammy Youngker; Jrs. Stephanie Hohman, Lauren Marce, and Raquel Youngker; and Sophs. Kathy Blanchard, Peggy Giedraitis, and Lara Jackson.

Putting a yearbook together isn't as easy as it seems. It takes a great deal of patience and a lot of dedication!

2. Jenny — Before she knows when the deadline is.

The Xavier tennis team began their glorious by season beating Prescott. Senior Jackie Ranger led Xavier to victory as our number one player. The few new freshmen players add new blood and inspiration to the team. Coach Wales guides the team to their victories. After last year's outstanding record, and the number of returning players, we're looking forward to a great tennis season.

SOFTBALL

"We didn't win many but we almost won quite a few. The real victory was being together, enjoying the game, and learning that character is built on how one accepts defeat."

It is obvious that even after a 2-11-1 season, Mr. McGuire never felt that his team let him down. Even though their record doesn't show it, The Gators had many high points throughout the season. Both Donna Mazur and Kathy Valenzuela made the All-Star team, and Mary Riek and Amy O'Melia were given Honorable Mentions.

Hopefully this season and in the years to come, our basketball team will be very successful because of all the talent and spirit they express throughout the games.

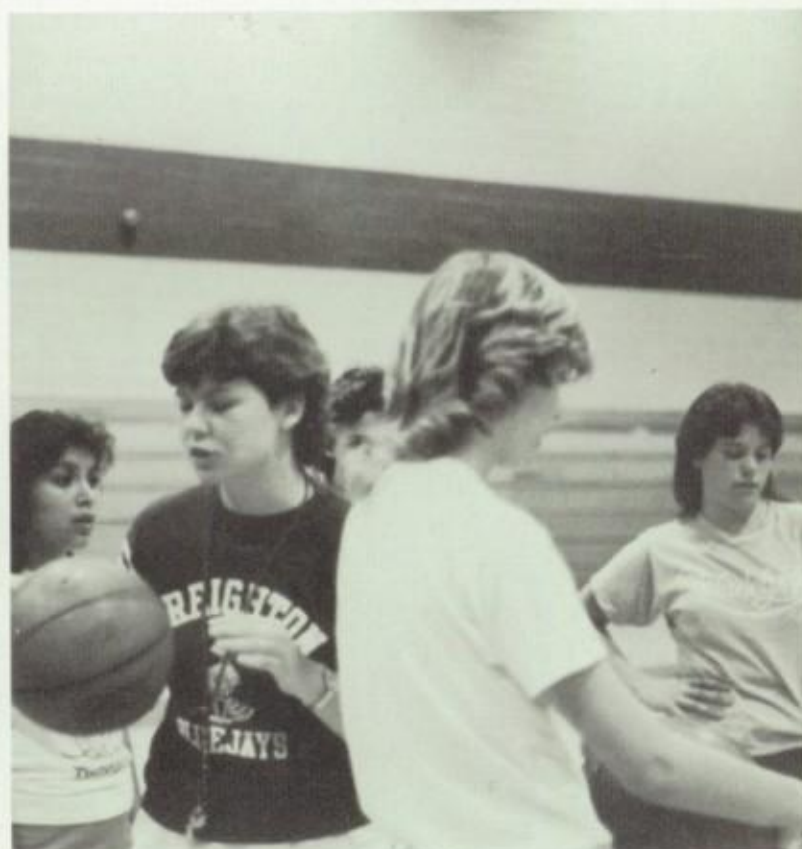

Varsity: Sophomores: Liz Naghton, Mary Alice Drumm, Melissa Chambers, Tina, Murphy Juniors: Stephanie Gass, Debbie Nastro, Amy O'Melia, Debbie Thorson, Lea Neiri Seniors: Cheryl Toledo, Jackie Holms

Under the direction of their coach, Mr. Tate, the Xavier track team is looking forward to a very successful season. Hopefully their dedication will pay off since the team members practice running, huddling, and shot-putting every day after school. With the added advantage of Mr. Tate helping them to train, the Xavier track team has a lot to look forward to, and they should go far.

Haagen Dazs — Bought during a Christian Service run
Cliff Notes — the beginning of a bad habit — found one day while in B. Dalton looking for the novel — bought the Cliffs.
Xavier Sweatshirt — Brought in on an experimental basis — as long as the collar stands up she'll wear it
Map to Boon Docker — More than likely incorrect, but if it's right by the time she gets there it'll be over
Back-Pack — Constantly loaded at 2:15 — never touched after 3:30

Dear Mom, Dad,
Jim, and especially you Mike, Thank you for all the support, concern, caring, and love you have shown me throughout my life. You have guided me, and encouraged me so much. As I prepare to leave home, I am both anxious, and apprehensive. I will miss you all so much, but I will take comfort in knowing that there are four people in the world who love me very much, and whom I can call 'MY FAMILY'. I love you all very much.

How fast to the time

What made us friends
In that long ago,
On the day we met?
Well, I think I know.
The best in me,

hailed each other because

Since time first began

We, the editors of this fine masterpiece, hope that you enjoy your yearbook as much as we enjoy it in its final stage. Thanks is due to many people. First of all to the staff for making it a real team effort. Second, thanks to our moderators, Mr. Larry Connors and Mrs. Lee Russell for their support and for having faith in us. The Brophy Editor, Mike Lawrence, and his photographers deserve thanks for their guidance and pictures. Thanks to our friends and family who understood us at our most pressing times. We have done our best to include everyone and apologize to anyone we have missed. We are truly sorry for all the mix-ups and misunderstandings. Thanks again to all those who made this XAVIERIAN possible.
